Authority has been granted to start recruiting for No. VIII Field Ambulance on Wednesday, January 5th, 1916. This Field Ambulance will be composed of three complete sections, each section having three Medical Officers, and the three sections will be in the Third Division, so that instead of supplying drafts from time to time as has been done in the past by "C" Section No. 1 P. A. D., this Field Ambulance will be a complete unit. Complete Unit. Incoming recruits should call at No. 211 Travis Building, Calgary, where full particulars may be obtained and men will be engaged on the spot.

It might be pointed out that it is not necessary to have previous experience in medical work, but as there are always a number of applicants, the M.C.M.C. is desirous of joining this new Field Ambulance should make early application.

Election will be held Monday, January 10th.

WANT MILK FOR GERMAN CHILDREN

At the request of so-called charitable organization in the United States Secretary Lansing has instructed Ambassadors Page and Sharp of London and Paris, respectively, to inquire whether the British and French government will permit shipment of condensed milk to Germany and Austria for distribution to infants under the direction of the American Red Cross. Statements that thousands of babies in Germany and Austria want the milk have been laid before the State department.

This is a most commendable thing in a way for the United States to do, but why so much interest in Germany and Austria? They have at least great boastful governments to back up their little ones and they claim they have plenty of food and that they will yet bring the allies to their knees. Would it not be better for these charitable organizations to try and give a little condensed milk as well as a little milk of human kindness to the poor dying children of Belgium, of Poland and of Serbia? Suffering children brought to that state of horrible misery by German and Austrian frightfulness. It is even likely that these organizations are backed by German gold sent to the United States to blow up their industries and bribe their people.

If the United States was at war with Canada and had one of our cities surrounded and under siege would they allow outsiders to send condensed milk into the city to feed the children?

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

In another column we publish an article headed "Seed Grain should be given a Germination Test." This is from the Dominion Seed Laboratory and sounds a strong note of warning to farmers of the west to be on the watch and secure good seed for the coming crop. Without good seed all the efforts of the tiller of the soil is vain. Owing to early frosts last fall this is more important this year than for some time. If you cannot take the time to have your seed tested now cut out the article and save it for future reference. Owing to the phenomenally good seed and large crop last year farmers will be apt to think anything will do for seed this year, and will meet with disappointment unless they select seed early and thoroughly test it. Read the article.

Much has been written since the outbreak of war about the perils of warnings which Lord Roberts gave to his countrymen. Still more remarkable was the foresight of another great soldier, "Chinese" Gordon who had this to say in 1882:

"Every Briton should think of the future of his country and cause each one to insist on the government passing a measure for compulsory universal military training! So far as England is concerned, the need now, for the next quarter of a century, is under any apprehension of serious difficulties arising with any of her European neighbors, but in 1910 or thereabouts there will have arisen a naval power which may prove mightier than she, and should she (Germany) gain the supremacy England will be come extinct, both as a sea and a land power, and all her dependencies, including India, will fall into Germany's clutches. You may live to see this. I shall not, but when that time comes remember my words."

The Edmonton Journal in commenting on these words says "It is strange that the words of a man who made such an appeal to the British imagination as did General Gordon should have left so little of a permanent impression as to be recalled only now when it is fully apparent how correctly he had the European situation sized up."

FARM SEED SUPPLIES

Field and garden seed supplies are practically assured for the 1916 planting. There is a scarcity in American grown crops including beans, onions, and to a lesser extent sweet corn. Amongst the imported stocks, Swedish turnips are rather short, also spinach and celery and some varieties of carrots. Red Clover and Alfalfa are unusually short and show an advance in price from 30 to 75 per cent. Other kinds that might be used as a clover substitute, as alsike, are higher in price than the supply would otherwise warrant. Well-established Canadian seed houses with contracts made two or three years in advance will have no serious trouble this season in taking care of their regular trade. Seed merchants, who depend from year to year on the surplus stocks that may be offered may have less assurance as to the character of their supplies.

NO EXCUSE FOR SLANDER

The Ottawa Journal remarks that Canada is full of narrow-minded and bitter partisans who would rather publish untrue charges about causes and persons they don't like than ask any questions. The Division commander's business is to investigate war purchases. Anybody can go to the commission with a complaint. The person who or newspaper who, rather than ask or make an investigation, will publish allegations discreditable to the honesty of his country and countrymen, is, we fancy, rather likely to be a liar than not.

Harvey, Several items of business came under discussion, chief among them being: (1) Selection of a Convention speaker for the next Provincial convention, Mrs. McClung being chosen unanimously. (2) Mental Hygiene work, conducted by Mrs. Dr. Wilson, assisted by Mrs. Bickell. (3) Organization of an L. T. L. (4) Taking up as a society some work for the Red Cross meeting for this on the first Friday of each month. Members who were absent will kindly note that the society will meet to sew on Friday next with Mrs. Bickell.

A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. McVicar, in the absence of Mrs. Creelman, who was to have given a talk on the evangelistic work of the W.C.T.U. Refreshments which were greatly enjoyed, were then served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Hull.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Baile and will take the form of a tea social.

Natal is Sunk While in Harbor; 300 Men Lost

Was An Armored Cruiser Built On Lines of the Pre-dreadnought Type

London, Dec. 31.—The British armored cruiser Natal was sunk after an explosion. Official announcement to this effect was made here today.

The Natal was sunk yesterday afternoon while in harbor, as the result of an internal explosion. There are about 400 survivors.

The armored cruiser Natal is one of the four ships of the Achilles class, being one of the last products of the pre-dreadnought era of naval architecture. Before they were in the water they were hopelessly outdated by the battle cruisers, of which the Invincible was the first. The Natal was built at Vickers yards, being laid down January 6, 1904, and commissioned in 1907. With a displacement of 13,500 tons, she had a length of 480 feet, beam 74 feet and draught 27 feet, while her 23,400 horsepower gave her a maximum speed of 23.1 knots.

Her armament consisted of six 9.2-inch, four 7.5-inch guns; 24 three-pounders, four maxims and one two-pounder field gun, with three submerged 18-inch torpedo tubes. She carried a belt of six-inch Krupp armor with seven inches on the barbettes. Her complement consisted of 704 officers and men. She was designed by Sir Philip Watts and belonged to the 1903 naval estimates.

The Natal is the newest armored vessel lost so far in the war by Britain.

Enormous Reservoir of Shells and Men on the Western Front for The Next General Advance

New York, Dec. 30.—A cable dispatch to the Herald from London says:

"The three months since the sharp and successful offensive in late September have seen a remarkably rapid accumulation of reserve men and munitions on the western front, in preparation for the next general advance. The expenditure in shells has been even less than it was during the summer, if conditions may be judged accurately from the official communications, and aside from the activity at Hartmannsweilerkopf, where comparatively small forces are engaged, the men have been called on for little real fighting."

"While the expenditure—human and material—has been at a minimum the production of both necessities has been at the maximum. France and Britain have been working their fully mobilized steel plants night and day, and it is estimated that out of every three shells two have gone into the reserve supply, that will be used when the time comes to maintain an unimpeded rain of death on the German positions from Neuport to Switzerland. Into the reservoir of men have gone a large proportion of the new units, which will receive their real baptism of fire in the next big push."

CHARGES OF CRIMINAL LIBEL

Editor Skinner and R. Gadsden Committed for Trial

Mr. J. D. Skinner, publisher of the Rocky Mountain House Guide, and Mr. R. Gadsden, of Rocky Mountain House, were committed for trial on Tuesday at Red Deer by Inspector Lindsay, J.P., on charges of criminal libel preferred by Mr. Levi Smith, chairman, and Mr. W. S. McKenzies, secretary, of Confluence School District. Mr. Russell appeared for the Crown. The accused reserved their defence, and were released on bail for each of $1000 and $500 on the respective charges.

The libellous matter complained of appeared in a long letter to the taxpayers published by Mr. Gadsden in the Guide of December 10, in which he attacked strongly on the financial affairs of the school district, and said:—

"And in the coming issue of the Guide I shall clearly indicate my position by showing you that the secretary is a liar and a thief. As to the chairman, you all know what he is, always whining, whining, whining like a cat. And in future when you hear our whine, you will naturally think of the honorable chairman."

The trouble arose out of allegations by Mr. Gadsden, who had been appointed collector by the school board on a 10 per cent commission, that the secretary was withholding from him commissions which he had earned. Mr. Gadsden was appointed collector on November 1, this year, as the Education Department was set on having the taxes collected, and on all moneys paid in from any source after that date he was to have commission. There was dispute as to whether the taxes were paid, or should be considered as having been paid, before November 1, and there were no subject to commission. Even if the collector had been rightly entitled to them, the Crown Prosecution contended that was a civil matter between the board and Mr. Gadsden. It was not suggested that the Secretary was withholding these moneys to put in his own pocket without the knowledge of the board. In this the magistrate agreed with him. Mr. Skinner cross-examined the secretary, and the Crown Prosecution contended that the secretary was withholding from him commissions which he had earned. Mr. McKenzies had been committed for trial on Monday by Mr. Allen, J.P., at Rocky Mountain House, on some four charges of theft, laid by Mr. Gadsden, based on the withholding of these commissions claimed. Mr. McKenzies declared that he only got one hour's notice of his preliminary trial, that he asked for a remand in order that he might get counsel to defend him, but that this was refused, and that Mr. Skinner, who had no standing whatever in the court, conducted the prosecution, "ran" the magistrate and the court, and railroaded the whole outrageous business through. There was absolutely no basis for a criminal charge, Mr. McKenzies further declared, and that Mr. Gadsden had been a civil action against the school board.

Mr. Mitchell, late teacher of the Garth school district, near Rocky Mountain House, was arrested at the U.S. boundary by the R.N.W.M.P. as the instance of the Education Department of Alberta and appeared before Inspector Lindsay, J.P., on Tuesday on a charge of stealing $210, the property of the Province. Mr. Mitchell sold the Guide, S.D. secretary-treasurer had both returned to school district as owing Mr. Mitchell some money on July 1, but the district had subsequently paid up and notified the Department to that effect. The Department inadvertently sent Mr. Mitchell a check for the $210 alleged to be owing her, which she cashed. She refused to hand this money over to the secretary-treasurer because of some trouble between them on other matters, but she always intended to return the money to the Government. She says, when some money due her was paid. She and her husband had a hard time when leaving the district and this apparently put repayment out of her mind.

The case was remanded until Wednesday when Mr. Mitchell refunded the money, and the Department, and all the circumstances, did not of any evidence. Mr. Russell appeared for the Crown, and Mr. Saunders, Calgary, for Mrs. Mitchell.

CANADIAN RAILS IN UNITED STATES

United States Manufacturers Recent Entry of Canadian Rail Mills in American Markets

During recent years huge quantities of railway materials have been imported from United States into Canada to assist in the construction of the vast railway enterprises of this country. While the movement of railway supplies across the line from United States has ceased temporarily, owing to the general business depression, there is no doubt that in normal times Canadians will continue to buy great quantities of materials of this nature in United States.

Up to the present time Canadian rail mills have been able to run to full capacity on Canadian orders, but since the temporary cessation of activity in Canada they have lost so much business that if they had to depend on the Canadian demand they would be forced to close down, and perhaps, in some cases, go into liquidation. The alert and energetic managers of these Canadian mills saw an opportunity of securing business, at least at low prices, in United States, and a few months ago the steel mill at Sault Ste. Marie tendered successfully on a big order for a large American railroad. Since then they have secured additional business in United States, and other Canadian mills have followed suit.

"Give and Take"
"The Manufacturers News" of Chicago referring to this business recently stated that: "Some criticism has followed the recent action of the Illinois Central Railroad because it placed an order for 30,000 tons of rails with the Algoma Steel Company of Canada."
"The order was for open heart rails and the price was $27 a ton delivered at Chicago. This was $3 a ton cheaper than prices usually quoted by American mills on the same rails."

"How much freight do the railroads of the United States receive upon rails manufactured in Canada?"
"If all the railroads bought their rails in Canada because they could obtain them at $3 a ton cheaper what would become of our working men, farmers and manufacturers?"
"And what would become of our railroads?"

Some Canadians in the past have complained about the "Made-in-Canada" movement, and particularly about the national policy which encourages Canadian manufacturers and industries. They would do well to reflect on the attitude of the people of United States with respect to the purchase of rails from Canadian manufacturers. There must be a certain amount of give and take in matters of trade. If Canada is to keep on purchasing huge quantities of manufactured goods from United States, the people of United States, particularly the manufacturers, must be prepared to allow Canadian manufacturers goods to sell in United States where Canadian firms can compete on favorable terms.

An American Protest
The Wall Street Journal, probably the leading financial paper in United States also views with disfavor the following recent sales in addition to the Illinois Central order: Pere Marquette, 5,500 tons; New York Central, 3,000 tons; Hoeking Valley, 4,000 tons; Toledo Terminal, 500 tons; Northern Ohio Traction, 500 tons; miscellaneous, 10,000 tons. "Canadian rails," says the Journal, "which have been subsidized by the Government, are granted preferential treatment from a foreign maker unless the Canadian mills are filled up. As this very rarely occurs, the United States gets very few orders of this kind." To refute this statement it is only necessary to consult the Customs returns for the year ending March 31, 1914, showing Canada's purchases of rails from the United States for the year to have been $4,901,851. During the ten months of the present year, when our mills had little to do, we purchased $877,866 worth of rails from the United States. When the News Journal recalls the past huge purchases of Canada in the United States, surely they can regard the present limited purchases of the United States in Canada without envy.

Who are the people that buy the products of your labor, and thus keep you employed and prosperous? Are they not Canadians? Do you not buy goods "Made-in-Canada" by these Canadians on whose patronage your own prosperity depends?

Keep Canadian money at home where you can share in the good business it will create! Buy goods "Made in Canada."

Comfort for Soldiers

Twenty Thousand Pairs of Larrigans for Trenches

Ottawa, Dec. 29.—Twenty thousand pairs of larrigans for use by the Canadian soldiers in the trenches have been shipped from Canada. One of the first consignments numbering several thousand pairs went astray and has just been located side-tracked somewhere in the lower provinces. The new larrigans are a strong affair and thoroughly waterproof.

Ancient History of Kilts
The Scottish kilt, as an article of dress, dates back to historic times, and was originally, as far as can be ascertained, merely a plaid blanket, worn about the shoulders, with one end gathered about the loins in cold weather. The mountaineers of the Balkans wear the kilt, and students say that the soldiers of the American kings wore a costume very closely akin to the kilt of Scotland.

Austrian War Fleet Chased by the Allies

TWO DESTROYERS SUNK

Paris, Dec. 30.—Two Austrian torpedo boat destroyers have been sunk as a result of an encounter with sea forces of the Allies at a point outside of Cattaro, in the Adriatic. The purpose of the Austrian ships was to bombard Durazzo. An Allied squadron went to meet them, with the result above set forth. In addition the remainder of the Austrian squadron was pursued by the warships of the Allies and compelled to retreat toward the Austrian base.

This information was contained in an official announcement of the French marine department given out today, which reads:—

"An Austrian naval division having come out from Cattaro for the purpose of bombarding Durazzo, certain squadrons of the Allies went forth to give battle. The Austrian torpedo boat destroyer Lika encountered a mine and was blown up. The destroyer Triglav, of the same type, was destroyed by fire from the ships of the Allies. The remaining warships of the enemy were pursued and fled in the direction of their base."

SEVERAL ENCOUNTERS
There have been several previous encounters of lesser importance than the one now reported in connection with Austrian attempts to interrupt transportation of Italian troops to Albania and of supplies for the Serbian forces which have retreated to that country. Several supply ships have been sunk by Austrian warships. The Austrian destroyers Lake and Triglav, one more of the class of the class of six laid down at Fiume in 1912 and completed the following year. They are the newest and largest of the class, with a displacement of 787 tons, beam 26 feet, length 226 feet, beam 26 feet, displacement 787 tons, with a complement of 33 knots an hour. Their armament consisted of two 4-inch guns, six 12-pounders and four 17.7 inch torpedo tubes. They carried a complement of 40 officers and men. One more of the class was sunk in an earlier stage of the encounter.

They are holed from Yarrow with turbine engines, burning both oil and coal.

I.O.D.E. NOTES
The Admiral Sir C. Cradock Chaplain of I.O.D.E., entertained the chapters of soldiers from Red Deer, with their mothers at a tea and Chris-mas Tree on the 24th, in the Parish Hall. The hall was very kindly placed at their disposal by the Parish Hall Committee. Tea was served in the lower hall at 5 p.m. and a huge Christmas tree prettily decorated with decorations provided by Mrs.
Pentland Lindsay. The presents were distributed by the Regent Mrs. G. W.
Greene, Red Cross Secretary, Mrs. F.
Stinson and Mrs. H. George.
Vice-Regent. About 80 children were provided each with a book, toy or doll and a bag of candy, fruit, nuts, etc., and by the pleasant exclamation from the children, everyone was well pleased. The Committee who had charge of the arrangements—were Mesdames Greene, George, Wright,
Carwell, Maxwell, A. H. Russell,
T. S. Miller, Hodgson, Clutterbuck, Welliver, Carcassell, Horsburgh.
A musical programme was provided by Miss Lilias Green, Miss Kettie Car-well, Master Roland Michener and others.

The dance in aid of the Red Cross and general work among the soldiers under the auspices of the Chapter, held in the Parish Hall on the 30th was a great social and financial success, over $150 was taken in, and the expenses for hall, music, etc., will be $50. Many of our soldier boys now in town attended and met some of the people of the city, and we trust they will enjoy their stay in Red Deer.

W. Greene, W. A. Moore, W. K.
Wickens, F. C. Whitham, G. H.
Lindsay, M. A. Munro, Quirk, H. L.
Gaetz, W. E. Lord, etc. A large committee of young people assisted in making it a success.

British Red Cross Funds to commemorate Trafalgar Day, and is giving silver medals for history to the Red Deer Alberta Ladies' College, St.
Joseph's Convent and Grades 9 and

Begin the New Year Right by Paying Cash for Your Hardware

We firmly believe that the extensive Credit business is one of the chief causes of the High Cost of Living.

Every merchant running a Credit business has to add a percentage for bad accounts. By selling for Cash only, this will be eliminated; and no more will the man who pays Cash for his goods have to pay indirectly for the man who is slow pay, or never pays.

Next Monday, January, 3rd, we will commence a strictly Cash Business, and we believe it will meet with your approval.

In November last we mailed a great many coupons, trusting one would reach every family. You no doubt received one.
If you did not, kindly let us know.

This coupon is good for 10% Discount on purchases (nails, wire and iron excepted) any one day in January.
